

When we use “WILL” – all about “WILL” 😊

■ When we use WILL:

- To give information about future: predict

Don't worry! It will be OK.

The weather will change soon.

You will never finish that book

Who do you think will win on Saturday?

- We use WILL with adverbs to indicate the level of certainty:

definitely

possibly certainly probably

The weather will definitely change soon.

Man will probably land on Mars before the end of the century.

I will certainly be home soon.

This bakery will possibly close this weekend.

■ - To express a personal opinion, we use WILL with:

I think

I will go to bed.

I don't think

the test will be difficult.

I guess

you will do the right thing.

I expect

Serbia will win.

I'm sure

we will have a great time together!

I wonder

who will win the football tournament this year.

I hope

you will come.

- To talk about future actions which are certain to happen and have nothing to do with our intentions!

The Sun will rise at 5:45 tomorrow.

(Sunce će izaći hteli mi to ili ne!
To nema nikakve veze sa našom namerom.)

My mother will be 40 next year.

(Ona će napuniti 40 godina sledeće godine i mi ništa ne možemo da uradimo po tom pitanju.)

■ In sentences with WILL, we often find:

definite time expressions:

Tomorrow
This year
In the next month
In five days
In two years' time
In 2050

Indefinite time expressions:

In the future
In the near future
Soon
Later
Sooner or later

These expressions are usually placed at the end of the sentence.

I am busy now. I'll see you later.

The climate will get warmer and warmer in the future.

■ We use WILL:

- To make promises and express propositions for the future.

We'll see what we can do.

I will come to see you in Greece, I promise!

I will try and work harder next semester.

I'm sorry.
I promise I won't
drive your car
again.

■ We use WILL:

- To express an immediate decision, made at the time of speaking.
- OFFER to do something!

Let me help you. I will carry those bags for you.

I will call taxi for you, madam!

I will pay!

Have you lost your key? I will go and look for it!

■ We use WILL:

- To say what you would like, for example in a restaurant.

Yes. I will have steak with potato chips.

Are you ready to order?

■ We use WILL:

-To refuse to do something (in this case we use NEGATIVE form of WILL = WON'T (WILL NOT))

What is the answer to exercise 4?

(will not)

I won't tell.

But now, let's see when we use BE + GOING TO +
VERB

■ We use BE + GOING TO + VERB

-To talk about things that we decided to do, but that we haven't yet planned in detail.

Mike is going to organise a welcome party!

I am going to give them a wedding present.
(but I haven't decided what to get yet)

NOTE: The future with going to only expresses willingness and intention of doing something.

■ We use BE + GOING TO + VERB

- To talk about long-term projects.

A: What are you going to be when you grow up?

B: I am going to be a reporter.

■ We use BE + GOING TO + VERB

-To foretell an event that will happen in the immediate (neposrednoj) future especially on the basis of what we see in the present.

Hey, look! She is going to fall down!

We are going to take off in just a couple of minutes!

The clouds are grey. It is going to rain.
