

WELCOME TO NAVOI

Dubai in Uzbekistan

Navoi State Mining Institute was established in ___ and in 2016 main campus of the institute was replaced to a new one. It is said that it is the only Mining Institute in Central Asia

There are more than 15 faculties in the Institute and students are taught by qualified professors. Nowadays, NSMI has branches in some regions of Uzbekistan, for example, in Olmalik and in Zarafshan.

“Yoshlar” stadium was built for uzbek sport competition
“Umid nihollari” which took place in Navoi in 2012.

Youth centre is the latest built culture palace for young generation. It is a two-store building with elegant façade. Today a lot of young people attend courses in computer science, weightlifting, carving, English language, Russian, playing musical instruments and sewing.

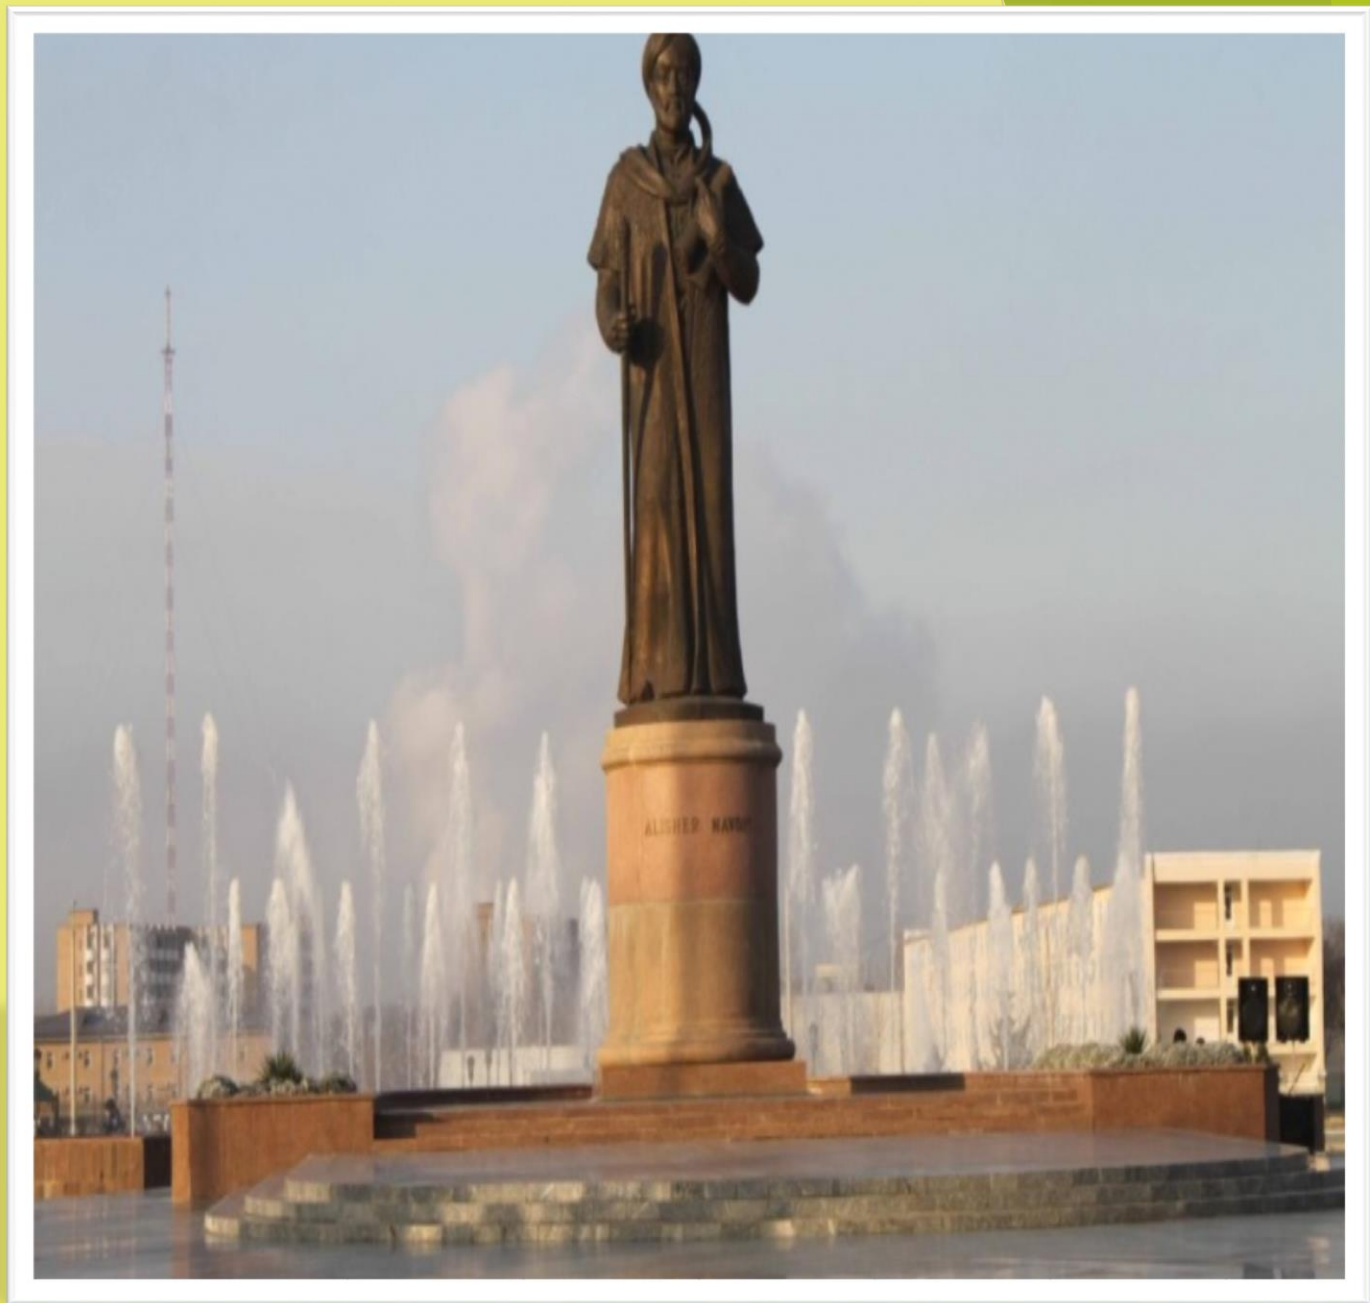

“Farkhad” is one of the best art centre in Navoi. It is famous for its dancers, especially national dancer. Its ensemble “Shirin” won lots of international tournament and gained victory to their team.

- The monument of great poet and discoverer of Uzbek language Alisher Navoi. Due to its great works for the development of our mother tongue our city is called after the name of this great person.
- Our young generation are trying to do something worth for our society and when they see this structure they feel proud of their ancestor and get inspired.

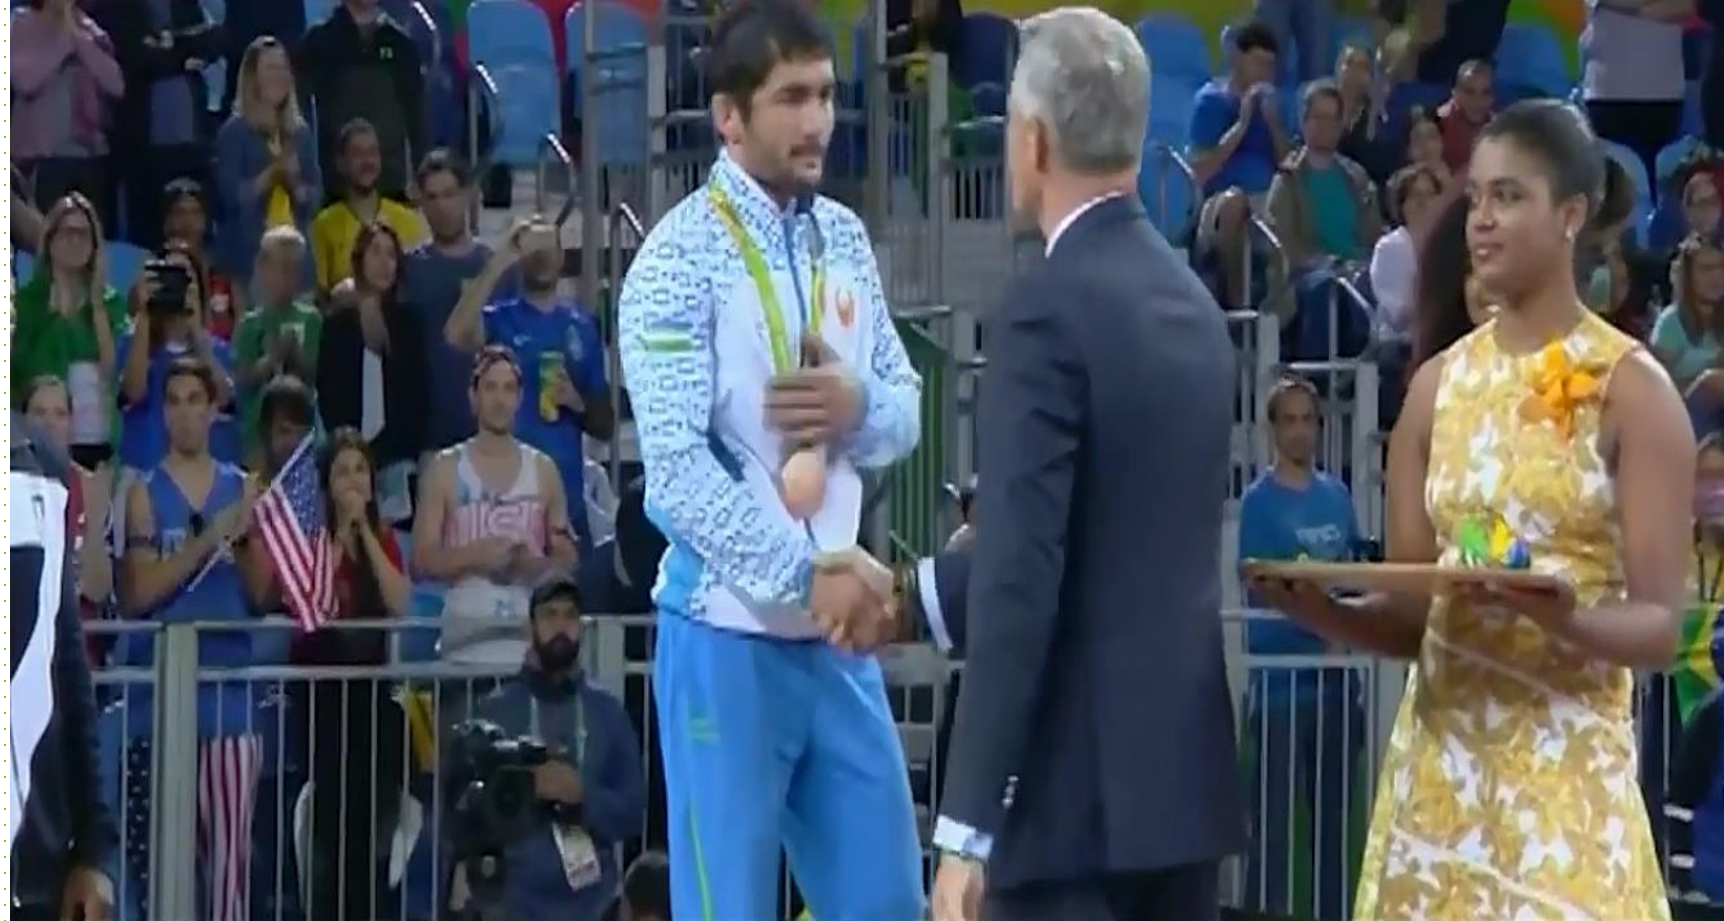

Caravanserai Rabati Malik is located in the Navoi region along the road Bukhara-Samarkand (Highway M37). In the Middle Ages this area was the piece of the Great Silk Road, leading from Samarkand to Bukhara, which has contributed to the construction of a fortified caravanserai, called Rabati Malik.

“No field can make the country well-known like sport”. Getting motivated from these sentences of our first president, our sportsmen are doing their best to win in an international championships.

Example for this is clear, last year in 2016 in the Olympic Games which was held in Rio-de-Janeyro, Ikhtiyor Navruzov from Navoi won in this game and was awarded with bronze medal.

Thanks for watching!

For more presentations call me at (+97)3208360